Where caring matters

FEBRUARY 2023 NEWSLETTER

Hello Families and Friends!

This month's issue from Meadowcare will be a little different. It is written by, better than us, the residents, living here! It is a collection of our table talk and creative minds.

This is our letter. We are spending time together with smiles upon our faces, holding hands together.

'We are lucky to live in a world where we matter to one another' Anne says. 'I agree' says Maureen, Christine and Pam. 'We all agree' says Sidney laughing and a big 'Yes' from Gail and Monica.

We should do something for our families, Elizabeth suggests. And here it is... a song for you.

*No one is an island,
Meadowcare sees to that.
No one is an island,
We've even got a cat.*

And we do! Her name is Meenu and she lives with Dr. Colin here.

Edna, John and Gillian's words of wisdom.

'Look around you. There's a lot of old aye around here'

'Yes there is. We's all a bit old.'

'I wish life was simpler'

'Well it ain't simple now.'

Have you noticed we do a lot of singing here. 'This is fun and keeps us young, says Joyce.'

'Inky Pinky Parlez Vous' from Mohammed and John.

'Oh Danny boy' from Catherine.

'Diamonds are Forever' from Irene.

We are very creative here. Joyce and Elizabeth wrote a poem about Pat's hair.

'Pat has beautiful hair of which she appears to be unaware.

*One day she will dare,
And become aware, to love her hair
And she will fall in love unaware.'*

We hope you like all of this.

We do! We have lots of songs and poems.

Good bye for now from all of us.

Star Employee:

Congratulations to Nevin for being the employee of the month! You may be one of the quietest staff but we have seen how you work diligently behind the scenes. Nothing goes unnoticed. Good job!
