

Greetings to all our Families and Friends of Meadowcare!

Another month and, at the beginning, we had sunshine and now, as we write, we have snow!

Halloween has been and gone.
We acknowledge
calendar events
as it gives us a sense of where we are at.

We had Guy Fawkes and the history behind the Gunpowder Plot. Elizabeth remembered the poem “November, November the 5th of November”.

And yes... another party. Josinny, a regular entertainer here sang Elvis, Neil Diamond, Josinny Cash but with a Jazz flavour. We loved it. Maureen loved it especially. We danced, we sang and plenty glamour in the lounge.

One event, in November, which seemed to have a life of its own was Poppy Day Remembrance.

It evolved into a living history event. Thank you for the incredible reminiscence sharing around the long table. We extended it with a tea party, an art display of red poppies. We passed around Ration Books. All it needed was a few woodbines to go around, Tony suggested.

Christmas is coming and the Meadowcare Elves have shopped 'til they dropped. We look forward to spoiling our lovely people living here.

Happy Birthday

It was birthday time for Bob and Christine, and more celebrations to come (look out for pics).

Anniversary!

Wedding Anniversary time for Diane and John, huge congrats to you both!
