

Newsletter September 2025

Our welcome to Autumn celebrated the season's bright colours, gorgeous flower arrangements, poetry and cozy feelings. A lovely smile Ray, and a perfect frame for you Gillian, Autumn is your season!

Our autumn arts and crafts activities provided a canvas for creativity to show beautiful seasonal changes. Weather painting or filling a tree with leaves nature is inspiring! Anne left no branch leafless and Kenneth's artwork is so detailed!

Sheila with Johnny's stunning guitar! Iris breaking out the moves on the dance floor! Always a privilege to have Johnny sing rollicking tunes and bring joyful memories.

Our Meadowcare family enjoyed an Australian cultural tour with our Aboriginal dot painting and dreamtime storytelling. Ruby's artistic genius is inspiring!

Dazzling flowers, precious memories and grand stories to tell. Christine knows how good it feels to reminisce!

A perfect day for some relaxing garden time with Robin. Or how about an exciting Badminton rally with Tony, Elizabeth or Margaret. Garry and Elizabeth hold the record at 35 shots!

SMASH!!

Our bingo bonanza brought laughs and excitement for every spin of the blower! Bill's bingo brilliance is unstoppable!

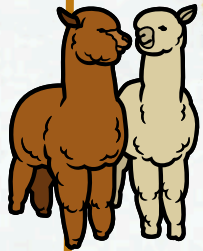

Tim and Geraldine put on a show for us on Actor's Day. Sure you're no actress, Elizabeth? Those line readings were incredible!

Who could resist the charm of painting cute alpacas! Also, is Tim's soft toy an alpaca or a llama? Christine knows the answer!

Trifles and sherry, who can resist Val's ingenious combo! Anne, how about a mere trifle... yes please!

Our Meadowcare creatives tried their hand at moulding edible play-dough to make all kinds of shapes and animals! We're star makers and Brooksie is a star!

Friendship bracelets offer a sentimental way to express connection and a creative outlet to remind us of all the special people in our lives. Friends forever, right Betty!

We were totally spoiled with our Meadowcare Pampering Day... aromatherapy, hand and feet massage and our our own free of charge Meadowcare Boutique! Iwona gave a Bill a fabulous foot message and Ruby is radiant with all the accessories!

“A birthday is a reminder that every year brings more reasons to smile.”

Happy Birthday

Pam

Robin

Brooksie

Iris

Bernadette

Maria

PHOTOBOARD

