

Hello to all our families and friends!

Our Christmas party was filled with delicious food, festive music, and lively conversation with family and friends! Shannon warmed up the place with her stunning vocal chords and brought out of us dance moves that would make Santa proud!

Newsletter December 2025

The Meadowcare staff held an evening filled with festive cheer, good food and the opportunity to unwind with the team. Thank you for your ongoing compassion and dedication!

Newsletter December 2025

Fun with gingerbread brought plenty of nostalgia, stories and sweet memories! Edna loved icing her gingerbread bauble and Tim cherished the chance to share Gingerbread family stories!

Making christingles is a Meadowcare tradition celebrating love and friendship! Betty and Anne decorate oranges with cloves and much finesse!

Newsletter December 2025

Christmas art captures the spirit of the season and transports us into a winter wonderland. Ray loves making everyone smile and laugh!

Newsletter December 2025

Let's talk about making that tree the star of your holiday show with some fun decorations, twinkling lights, and festive tunes.

Johnny the Elf got us to jingle all the way with cheerful Christmas songs, hilarious jokes, and, of course, plenty of dance-offs! A special thanks to Late Sheila's family for arranging the concert as a tribute to Late Sheila!

Newsletter December 2025

Balloon Badminton is all about laughter, friendly competition, and some serious coordination skills! Elizabeth and her son Michael battled it out and Kenneth was lightning fast with those reflexes!

Whether or not you're a kid at heart, our train theme had us chugging along in creativity and knowledge. Iris explored the train set and Angela reminiscenced over train memories!

Christmas Day was full of happy tears and the joy of giving and receiving! Whether unwrapping presents or singing carols at the top of our lungs, we cherished every cheerful moment.

Special thanks to families for their kind gifts to staff!

Newsletter December 2025

Happy
Birthday

Margaret

PHOTOBOARD

Newsletter December 2025

