

Our Meadowcare family we're thrilled to invite Pastor Shibu and the worship team from Mount Church for a lovely morning service. With songs, scriptures, and heartfelt conversation - it was truly a blessing. Elizabeth called out for an encore and it was Ruby's favourite hymn!

What better way to celebrate the frosty season than warming up with a delightful New Year's Tea Party? Iris and Anne adored the cosy Hedgehog guest, sweet conversation, and, of course, delicious sips!

Our 'Beauty of a Winter's Frost' activity celebrated the season with gorgeous artworks and amazing fun facts about snowflakes and ice. Meadowcare became a winter wonderland with Iris' painted snowflake and Ray's cotton tree branches!

Milk, dark, white... Our Chocolate Day offered the gamut our favourite sweet treats! With chocolate tasting, fun facts and a quiz, Fran was all chuckles!

Our flower painting session combined art and nature for a calming and enriching morning. Edna adored painting beautiful blooms and Anne was fascinated by how tulips can grow back after being cut!

ART

At Meadowcare we love poetry, stories and good hot chocolate! Geraldine recited her stunning rabbit story, and we felt nostalgic for our childhood and soft toys! Dora is a fellow bookworm and Elizabeth is quite the improvisational poet!

Anne with her butterfly made from chenille stems, Christine with her aeroplane from popsicle sticks and Pamela with her flowerboard with stickers, straws and foam! Our crafts session with sensory play was the perfect way to relax and challenge ourselves with colour and joy!

Crafts

Our Meadowcare family never miss the opportunity for some light exercise, sensory play and fun challenges. Anne is a whiz with those epic balloon rallies and Maryam's hand-eye coordination with the colourful tarp is fantastic!

Our concert with the splendid singer Shannon brought an unforgettable afternoon filled with singing, dancing, and, of course, some toe-tapping tunes! Tony chimed in with his ukulele brilliance and Kenneth was thrilled to slow dance with Shannon!
